OK, it's official....we as a family are addicted to the new Xbox Live Arcade on the Xbox 360. We have bought three games now, Bejeweled 2, Zuma, and now Outpost Kaloki X. Sarahpoo is currently playing two or three others that we will more than likely buy as well. You just have to love being able to buy a simple fun game for $10 and getting to try it before you buy it. Can't wait to see what else they bring out in the coming months. I would buy the old arcade game called Kix which came be downloaded for PC at http://www.dosgames.com/g_cla.php
